Goals	This course introduces students to the field of information management with particular emphasis on the management of information within Organisations. Students will be provided with opportunities to explore the basic concepts and principles of information management as well as apply these concepts and principles to practical problems. Advanced topics will also be introduced throughout the course to foster greater depth of understanding, to challenge students to think about established issues in new ways, and to highlight gaps in our current understanding. Some appreciation will also be fostered for the limitations of empirical research and for the unique challenges associated with the management of information. Key Learning Objectives            Develop an awareness and understanding of key principles, theories, and technologies related to the management of information            Obtain experience in applying information management concepts to address substantive, real-world information management issues            Appreciate how empirical research can guide efforts to address real-world information management issues            Foster ability to communicate business issues to technical audiences and complex technical issues to non-technical audiences
Description	Graduates have academic, evidence-based knowledge and understanding of theories, methods and tools in business/economics.            Graduates can apply their knowledge and understanding to identify and solve real life business/economic problems. This includes demonstrating analytical skills and a problem-solving attitude.            Graduates can inform Judgments on theoretical and practical business/economic issues.            Graduates can effectively communicate both to specialist and nonspecialist audiences. This includes demonstrating strong presentation skills, project- management skills and interpersonal skills. PLEASE NOTE THAT THE INFORMATION ABOUT THE TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT METHOD(S) USED IN THIS COURSE IS WITH RESERVATION. THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HERE IS BASED ON THE COURSE SETUP PRIOR TO THE CORONAVIRUS CRISIS. AS A CONSEQUENCE OF THE CRISIS, COURSE COORDINATORS MAY BE FORCED TO CHANGE THE TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT METHODS USED. THE MOST UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION ABOUT THE TEACHING/ASSESSMENT METHOD(S) WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE COURSE SYLLABUS. The course will discuss themes that are directly relevant to producing information management professionals. Some of these topics are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Measuring the impact of IT on business performance</li> <li>2. IT consumerization</li> <li>3. Big Data: The role of Business Intelligence and Business Analytics</li> <li>4. IT Governance</li> <li>5. Information Security</li> </ol> All of these topics are on the top of the agenda of an information manager and practitioners are constantly looking for methods to better address these issues. For non IM specialists, a discussion of these topics helps to understand the most relevant problems that are part of using IT in organisations. Given the widespread use of IT, managers who are active outside the field of IT also deal with many of these same problems on a regular basis. The discussion of each topic will focus on methods and tools that are being used by practitioners to deal with these issues. For most topics, additional readings are available to provide background knowledge for students who lack the relevant prior knowledge.
