Goals Becoming familiar with main characteristics of Corporate Taxation systems around the world
Description This intermediate course focuses on the main similarities of and differences between corporate taxation systems worldwide. Students will have an insight in systems of corporate taxation, determination of the tax base and special tax schemes, such as group taxation, controlled foreign corporation regimes and special provisions on mergers and split-ups. Dividend taxation and interest deduction limitations (like thin capitalisation and controlled foreign corporation regimes) will be outlined. This course will address these issues from a comparative perspective.
