Goals	Participants will learn to understand the role of information technology in global supply chains.
Description	Management of global supply chains is impossible without using information and communication technology. Advances in ICT such as the internet and wireless communication have had a dramatic impact on supply chains and the way supply chain processes are managed. In this course we systematically address the technologies and systems which play a role in contemporary supply chain management. We will treat topics such as ERP, e-procurement, e-supply chain management, e-business, e-marketplaces, web 2.0, supply chain visibility, RFID, et cetera. We will not only focus on the systems, but also on the management aspects of implementing and choosing these ICT systems. Examination will be done in the form of a group assignment and a formal exam.
Literature	Academic articles will be used as written in the block book.
Prerequisites	Knowledge of Operations and Supply Chain Management. Part of Master Global Supply Chain Management (Venlo)
