Goals	The goal of this course is to provide students with a solid knowledge in their discipline of interest. The outcome of this course is: 1) Full comprehension of state-of-the-art knowledge within the discipline of interest and the ability to keep this knowledge up-to-date, and 2) the ability to reflect on a range of conceptual and empirical materials and to derive a novel research question within the discipline of interest.
Description	PLEASE NOTE THAT THE INFORMATION ABOUT THE TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT METHOD(S) USED IN THIS COURSE IS WITH RESERVATION. THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HERE IS BASED ON THE COURSE SETUP PRIOR TO THE CORONAVIRUS CRISIS. AS A CONSEQUENCE OF THE CRISIS, COURSE COORDINATORS MAY BE FORCED TO CHANGE THE TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT METHODS USED. THE MOST UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION ABOUT THE TEACHING/ASSESSMENT METHOD(S) WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE COURSE SYLLABUS. The course Business Research Disciplinary Course 3 allows students to gain solid knowledge in their discipline of interest. They therefore should participate in one of the IB courses within their discipline of interest and participate in all course components of this course. Additionally, students are expected to write a research paper on the papers that are discussed within the chosen IB course. In this paper students are expected to reflect on the materials that are offered during the chosen IB course, to critique established theories to different bodies of knowledge or practice, and to formulate their own, original research proposal. The latter allows students to apply and further develop their investigative skills gained and developed through the courses within the Business Research programme.
Literature	The literature used for this course is the same literature as is used within the IB course that is followed as a requisite for this course.
Prerequisites	All students who are admitted to the Master of Business Research can follow this course.
