Language of instruction	English
Goals	Students learn to write a review
Description	In this skills course you will learn how to write a critical review of an academic paper. You will receive some guidelines on how to write such a review, but the most you will learn is by first carefully reading the paper you have to review, reflecting on it, making notes about the points you want to discuss in your review, and finally through the writing process (that is, writing, reading and re-writing) itself. In the course you will receive feedback on a draft of your review by a student-commentator as well as the tutor.
Literature	Academic papers. To be announced on Canvas in due time.
Prerequisites	This course is in transition for the bachelor Fiscal Economics. See the Bachelor Education and Examination Regulations for more information. The following rule applies to bachelor Fiscal Economics students. TRANSITIONAL REGULATION (EBS2029): The bachelor Fiscal Economics has been discontinued. There will be repeat education for year 1 and year 2 courses up to and including academic year 2025-2026 and exam-only up to and including academic year 2026-2027. For year 3 courses there will be repeat education up to and including 2026-2027 and exam-only up to and including academic year 2027-2028. Whether a course is in transition, cancelled, or replaced may depend on the cohort you are in. Sometimes there are additional criteria. It is therefore very important to carefully read the EER and any addendum so you can apply the rules to your individual situation. PREREQUISITES: An advanced level of English. No specific knowledge required.
