Goals	Learn various traditional and modern theories about why countries trade Learn who is affected and how by trade Learn how trade policies may be used to change the outcomes of trade Apply micro-economic tools to international economic problems
Description	The course covers the real part of trade theory. It is a formal analysis of the reasons for international trade, the way different parties gain or lose from trade, and what can be done about that through trade policy. The subject matter is theoretical in nature, but the theory is illustrated using real life examples and cases.
Literature	* Feenstra, R.C. and Alan M. Taylor (2021) International Economics, 5th ed. Worth * Selected papers
Prerequisites	This course is in transition for the bachelor Fiscal Economics. See the Bachelor Education and Examination Regulations for more information.
