Goals	The main goal of this course is to provide students with a thorough understanding of major topical areas in financial management, including an overview of the most recent developments and the ways they are integrated into corporate practice. Students will learn how to evaluate major strategic corporate and investment decisions and to understand capital markets and institutions from a financial perspective.
Description	Topic coverage includes: asset valuation, real options, capital structure, cost of capital, Hybrid Financing, corporate liabilities, Initial Public Offerings (IPOs), Mergers and Acquisitions (M&As), and Sustainable Finance. Throughout the course, practical applications of financial concepts and techniques will be carried out with the use of cases. Building on earlier, more fundamental courses in corporate finance and investments, the scope of the Sustainable Financial Management and Policy course drifts away from the simple technical analysis of corporate financial decisions to a high-level discussion of their strategic implications for the profitability and sustainability of the company.
Literature	E. F. Brigham and P. R. Daves, Intermediate Financial Management (13th edition), Cengage Learning, 2019.
Prerequisites	- Second year course in finance. - Knowledge and understanding of finance (at least one introductory finance course). - Exchange students need to have taken at least one introductory finance course. - An advanced level of English. The course is open to students who have followed a first-year undergraduate corporate finance course, including exchange students, provided that they have taken at least one introductory finance course. Students who have not taken any basic finance course are not advised to register; experience shows that the amount of work necessary to catch up with the basic knowledge in finance is highly time- and resource-consuming.
